PARTICIPANT RIGHTS

Individuals who participate in YMCA of Broward County programs have the right to expect fair and equitable treatment at all times. The YMCA of Broward County respects the rights of all persons to practice their own personal beliefs, religions and lifestyles.

Participants are encouraged to express their likes and dislikes regarding programs that they or their dependents are involved in. They have the right to expect that reasonable care and consideration be given to their needs and concerns. The YMCA of Broward County prohibits the solicitation of participants through the use of fraud, intimidation, undue influence, including offering discounts, special offers that include prizes, free services or other incentives by outside entities and/or individuals.

- Participants have the right to be in a caring and safe environment in which to participate and enjoy activities.
- Participants have the right to be treated in an honest and fair manner from staff members, volunteers and other participants.
- Participants have the right to be treated respectfully and confidentially when applying for financial assistance and not be denied services based on race, color, ethnic origin, creed, gender, lifestyle or disability.
- Participants have the right to have their information handled in a confidential manner.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The YMCA of Broward County takes seriously all concerns expressed by participants. Should an individual have a grievance, a Grievance Form must be completed and processed in the order below. Responses to grievance will be provided to individuals verbally and in written form in a language appropriate and easily understood by individual.

- The individual reports grievance to the Site Coordinator or the Program Director on the Grievance Form.
- If the grievance cannot be resolved, it is reported to the Branch Executive Director for further consideration.
- Unresolved serious grievances will then be reported to the President/Chief Executive Officer.
- The Association Board of Directors may be consulted should a grievance be of nature that is not resolved through the first three steps.
- The President/Chief Executive Officer and/or Association Board of Directors will make the final determination in the matter.

I have read and understood the YMCA of Broward County, Youth and Family Companion and have been given a copy of the Participant Rights and Grievance Procedures at the time of registration.

Furthermore, I understand the YMCA of Broward County is legally obligated to report any suspicion of abuse, neglect or exploitation. Providers and Parent(s)/Guardian(s) may make abuse claims to 1.800.96.ABUSE.
